

WORK AND FAMILY.....WORKING WITH YOU IN RESOLVING PROBLEMS.

The Work and Family Program, (EAP), provides help and support in resolving personal problems affecting job performance. Trained Work/Family Representatives are available for private and confidential meetings.

What kinds of help are available?

- Marital and family problems
- Mental health...stress, anxiety, and other emotional problems.
- Relationship Issues
- Alcohol problems
- Drug problems
- Transition Issues
- Gambling

Office numbers are: 673-2011 or 673-2951

You can also request to see a rep through your supervisor, union rep, or go through the medical dept.

*** There are some provisions in the National Agreement that pertain to sick leave due to mental health. It is always recommended you see your Work/Family rep when going on sick leave for these types of issues, to ensure your pay isn't interrupted.

UAW Reps... Charles Reason, Marcia Gensler, Kellie Christman.

Management Rep... Rick Wilde
